The highest point on the trek is 3,948meters (12,953 feet) at Syanboche compared to 5,364 meters (17,600feet) at the top of the classic Everest Base camp trek. At several points on our trek, we get views of Mt. Everest(8,848meters, 29,029 feet). The easier walking and greater luxury of this trip allow you to take in the beauty and culture of the region. At a relaxed pace, short trekking.

The Everest Luxury trekking begins from Lukla after a short flight from Kathmandu. We walk above the Dudhkoshi River, enjoying agriculture fields, greeneries, and Sherpa villages. Luxury Trekking, we stay warm, comfortable accommodation with ensuite facilities, unlike teahouse on other treks that lack heating and private bathrooms. The best time for this is during the fall and spring.

Nepal Hiking Trek recommends that you include some extra days in your trip because flights out of Lukla airport can experience long delays and cancellations, even for cloud cover. For any queries, please feel free to contact us.
