Lower Mustang Tour Trek offers a great combination of culture and moderate walking in the stunning western part of the Annapurna Himalayas. The trip can be done as a trek, jeep tour or combination of both.

Lower Mustang Tour Trek, The deep Kali Gandaki gorge and the arid rain shadow behind the Annapurna peaks present a unique landscape with beautiful rock formations, monasteries, and traditional villages. After enjoying the sights of Kathmandu and Pokhara, we fly to Jomsom, where our trek begins. We walk through the deep Kali Gandaki gorge on a dry riverbed, framed by high mountains on both sides. A few hours later we reach Kagbeni, with its bustling market and monastery, influenced by Tibetan Buddhism. Kagbeni is also a gateway to Upper Mustang, a restricted area requiring a special permit. (The Upper Mustang trek is also offered by Nepal Hiking Trek).

Muktinath temple is the final destination of the trek, which is significant for both Hindus and
