Kathmandu Valley Tour includes the major temples and sights of Kathmandu Valley, including the Pashupatinath temple, Boudhanath Stupa, Swayambhunath (or Monkey Temple) and Durbar Square in Kathmandu itself. From there we go to nearby Bhaktapur with its medieval sights such as the Palace of 55 Windows, Golden Gate, and Batsala Temple. We also visit Nagarkot, with its fabulous views of the Himalayas, the ancient trading center of Dhulikhel and finally to Kakani, the home of the Gurkhas.

Kathmandu valley tour remains mystical with surrounding cultural sites. On its ridge, you can explore the greeneries and wonderful Himalayan views on the horizon and fascinating sunrise/sunset over it. The itinerary of Near Kathmandu Valley Tour takes you to the Kathmandu valley, Bhaktapur, Nagarkot, Dhulikhel, Kakani and the Bungy site over the Bhotekoshi River.

The beginning of the Near Kathmandu Valley Tour moves around the popular cultural sites in Kathmandu, Lalitpur, and Bhaktapur. The Pashupatinath temple, Swayambhunath, Boudhanath, Kathmandu Durbar Square are popular places that are included in the UNESCO listed world heritage sites. Patan Durbar Square is another spectacular site in the valley, specifically in the Lalitpur district. Visiting the Bhaktapur Durbar Square is awesome to acknowledge the medieval lifestyle. Museum, ancient temples, and sculptures are great to see. The next destination- Nagarkot is one of the best sunrise/sunset view above the snowy peaks. The tour then leads you to another touristic place, known as Dhulikhel and drive to Kakani. It is a pocket zone for trout fish. Enjoying the sunset view, you drive back to Kathmandu.
